The Making of a Gate City High School Student

Like the devils on the Cover, We students at Gate City High School share Common bonds yet express our own unique identities. We are united through our triumphs, defeats school spirit, friends, fun, Classes, tears, and laughter. However, We May Choose different pals, Courses of study, And ways to excel. A student May devote time to studying, sports, or organizations. One student May love to be Class President, while another prefers to play football.

The Yearbook will show all these similarities and differences because they are essential to the Making of a student. It will highlight for future Memory the hard work, Creativity, and craziness that are required of a student. Throughout this Yearbook are all the events that Culminate into the Making of the 1995 students of Gate City High School. Freddie Jason, are you sure these are bungee cords?

I'm sure Larry! Shut up and jump!

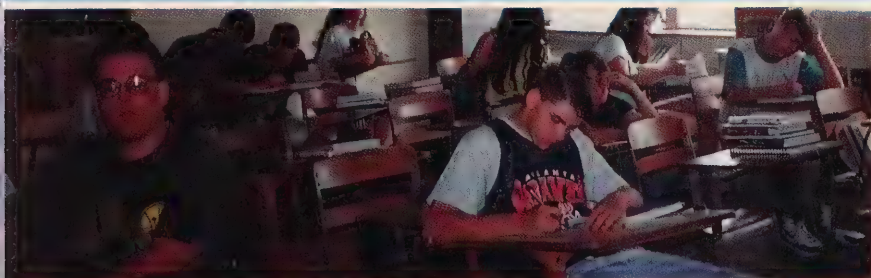

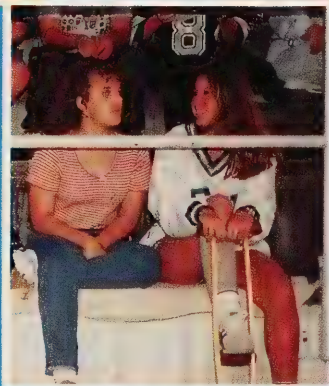

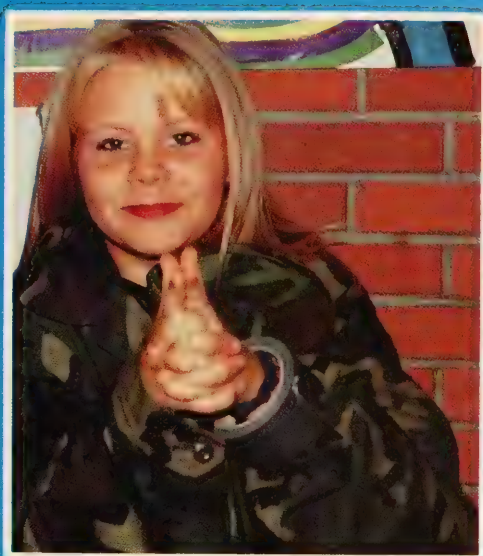

Well, Lindsey, I guess we'll have to find a new center and defensive tackle.

THE MAKING OF

HOMECOMING

THE MAKING OF A PROM

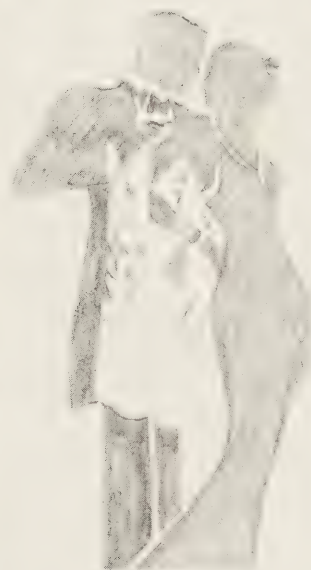

Clockwise from top: David and Jane Ann get ready to dance; Shawna, Kevin, John, and Kelly enjoy the evening; four friends smile for the camera: Lori, Tara, Sally, and Cindy; Charles and Jason: Have you tried the punch lately? Jamie, Kristie, Amy, and Mike enjoy rest and refreshments.

May 7, 1994, was certainly a night to remember "Now and Forever". The gym was transformed into a magical world by lights and city horizons. Students also looked different in sequined dresses and tuxedos. Everyone enjoyed seeing their friends dressed up, dancing at the prom, and having fun until the wee hours of the morning.

A color photograph of four teenagers sitting on a brick wall. From left to right: a girl with long red hair in a light blue jumpsuit, a boy with short blonde hair in a denim vest over a light shirt and jeans, a girl with dark hair in a floral dress, and a girl with brown hair in a green vest over a white shirt and skirt. They are all smiling at the camera. The background shows trees and a clear sky.

THE MAKING OF A SENIOR

It was the best of times, it was the worst of times, it was the age of wisdom, it was the age of foolishness, it was the epoch of belief, it was the epoch of incredulity, it was the season of Light, it was the season of Darkness, it was the spring of hope, it was the winter of despair. — Charles Dickens, A Tale of Two Cities

If you can believe it, you can achieve it. If you can dream it, you can become it.

Life is tough. Three out of three people die, so shut up and deal. — Ring Lardner

I wouldn't necessarily want to run the world, but I wouldn't mind taking it for a little ride. — Virginia Slims Commercial Happiness is found along the way, not at the end of the road.

But I took the road less travelled and that has made all the difference. — Robert Frost

It's not whether you get knocked down, it's whether you pick yourself back up. — Vince Lombardi

You may be disappointed if you fail, but you are doomed if you don't try. — Beverly Sills

You've come a long way,
baby! — Virginia Slims Commercial

Do not walk in front of me, I may not follow. Do not walk behind me, I may not lead.
Walk beside me and be my friend. — Albert Camus

Yesterday is a memory. Tomorrow is a dream. Today is the reality. Make the most of it.

No matter how cool you look in your high school yearbook, in 20 years your kids will still laugh.

Happy trails to you until we meet again. Happy trails to
you. Keep smiling until then.
— Roy Rogers Theme Song

Keep a smile on your face and everyone will think you know something.

But I have promises to keep,
and miles to go before I sleep,
and miles to go before I sleep.
— Robert Frost

THE ROAD TO THE FINALS

By BOBBY FORD
The Winchester Star

It was the kind of setting that will make some re-evaluate their position on domed stadiums. It was the kind John Madden types would enjoy seeing every day.

Rain fell all day.

The sun not only didn't appear, it never even peaked through the clouds to let the overflow crowd know it had actually come up. Fog settled on the tree tops. The wind blew just enough to remind you just how wet you were.

And the mud.

Most standing on the sidelines won't remember the last time they had so much mud on them without attempting to get covered in it. And they didn't even play. It was enough to bring flashbacks of Woodstock.

Legion Field is not only the Blue Devils' home football stadium, it's their practice facility as well.

The field weathered every Gate City practice and home game since the beginning of August and it looked it. There were perhaps five, maybe six blades of grass between the hashmarks from end zone to end zone. If you couldn't see mud, it was because the big puddle of water hid it quite nicely.

With the middle of the field so chewed up and well irrigated, the teams might have found their best footing outside the hashmarks, near the sidelines.

The only problem with running toward the sideline was the fear of stepping out of bounds and three steps later flipping over a fence lined with people. Some of those along the fence were well wishers, others not-so-well wishers. For instance, the fan who barked, "It's not as easy as you thought it would be, is it?," at Handley coach Ron Lindon as he was heading to the locker room at halftime.

1. Oh how we love our Gate City High
2. We'll hold our heads up through all defeat

Through all tough battles never say die
No matter what team we're going to meet.

With our colors blue and white
With a smile to greet you as we

We'll fight a tough game here tonight
March on to victory. GO BLUE!

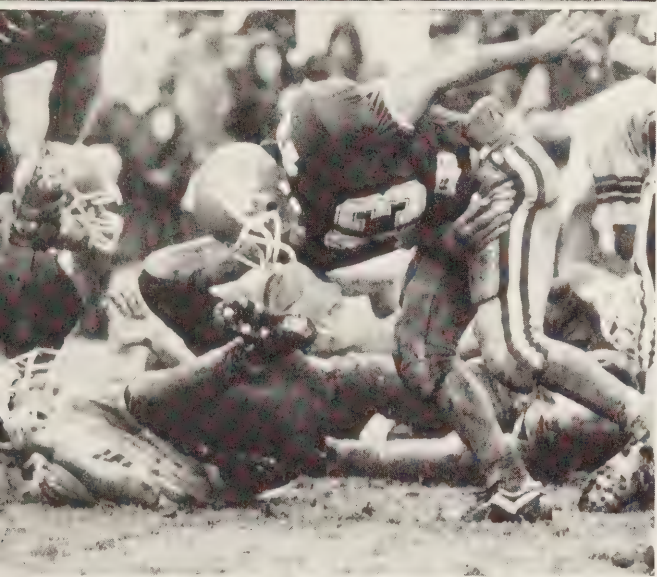

The Blue Devils' legions were out in force, filling three-fourths of the stadium, the rest of which was stocked with Handley fans. Surrounded by mountain peaks on every side, whatever sound escaped was quickly fired back into the pit.

Of course, not much sound escaped because the field was just eight feet from the fence and the stands. Fans lined the entire fenceline, barking out their insults to the Judges and screaming for their team to charge on. When the people weren't yelling, they brandished air horns and squeezed them as Handley tried to call plays. When the airhorns ran dry, they resorted to the horns in the cars and trucks parked behind the south goalpost.

"We saw all the signs coming in to town and then to see the fans standing out there two hours before the game," said Dowrey, "I think that impressed the kids to the point that it fired them up even more."

THE MAKING OF A VOCATIONAL STUDENT

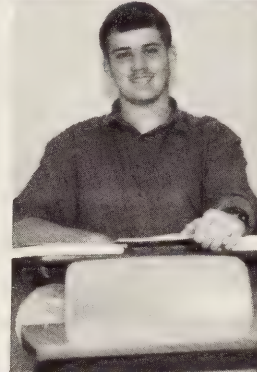

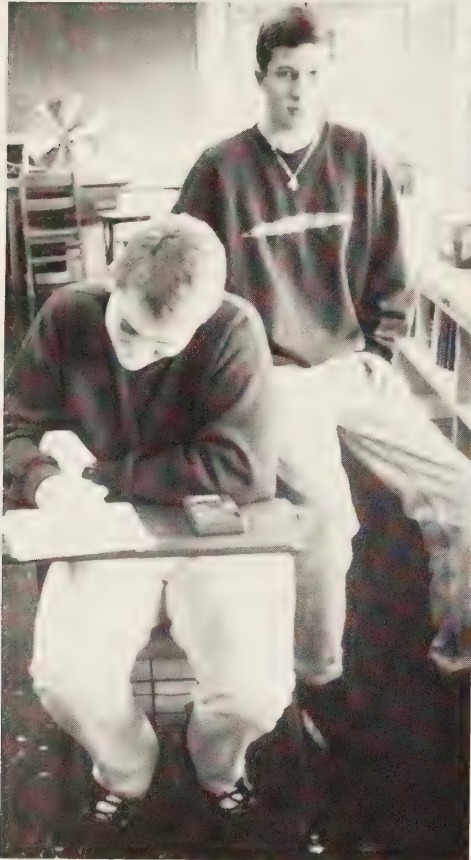

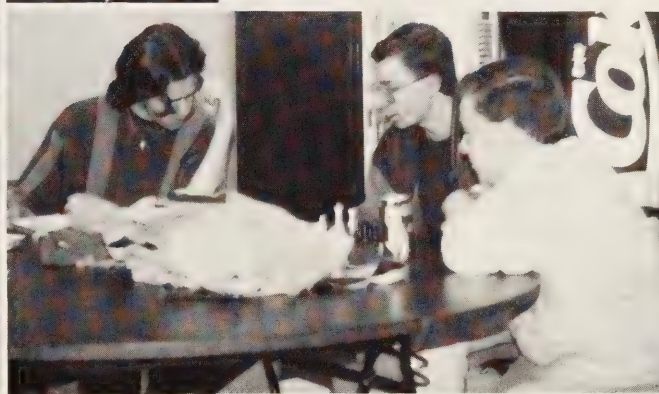

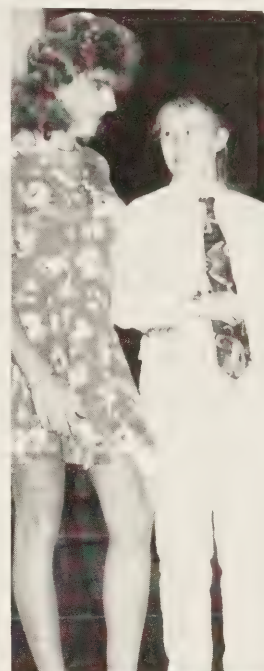

THE MAKING OF A MARKETING STUDENT

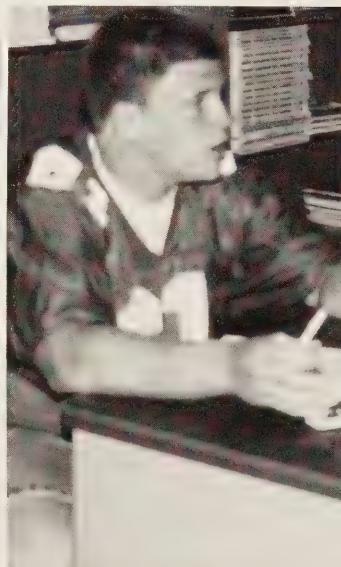

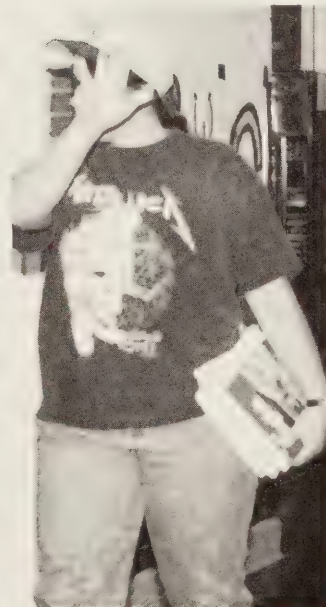

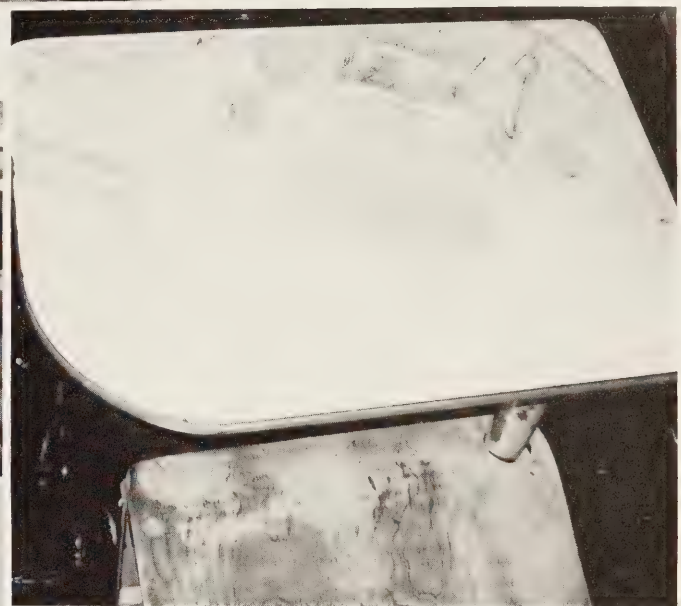

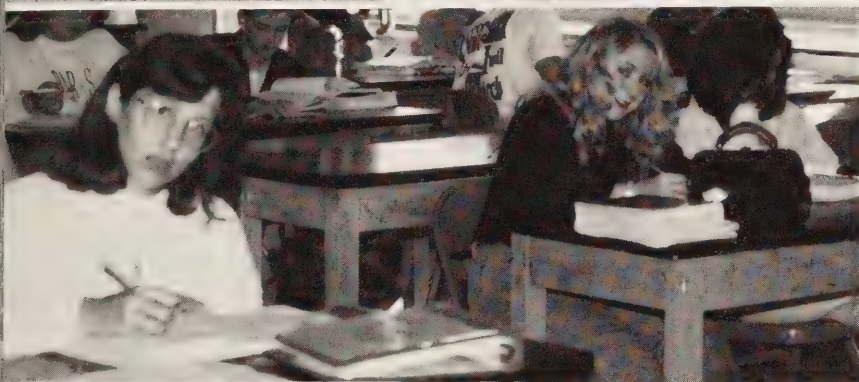

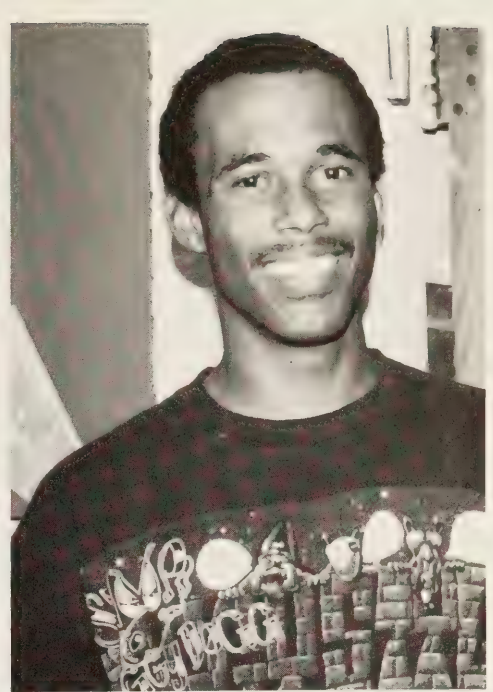

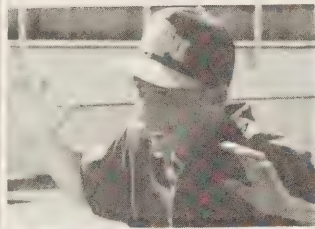

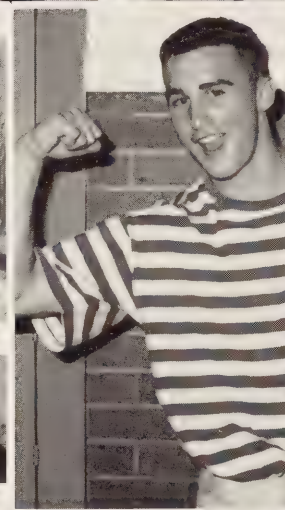

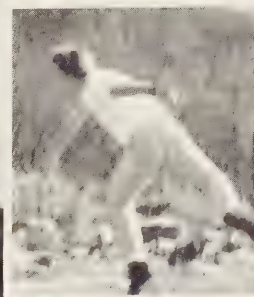

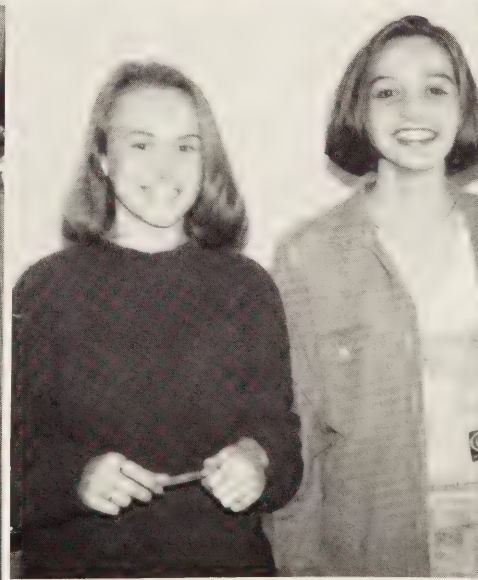

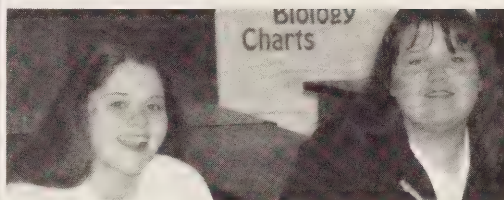

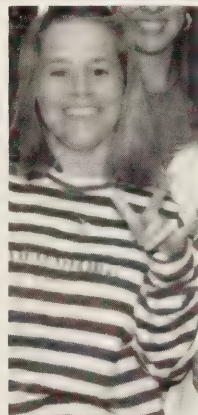

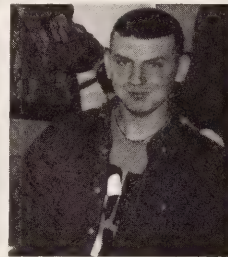

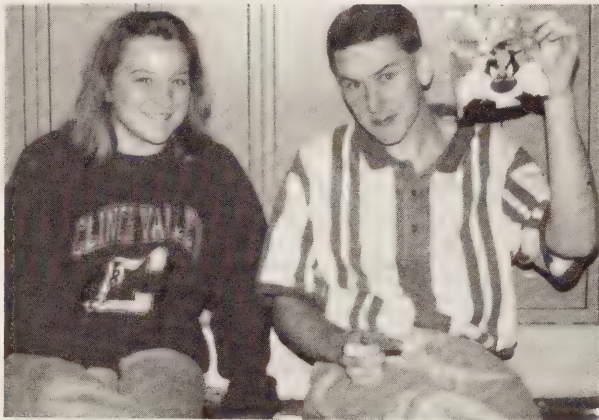

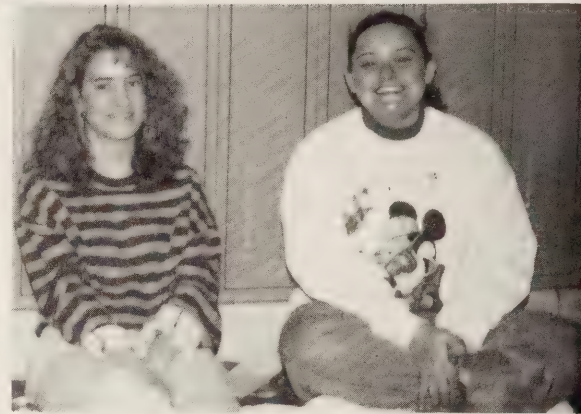

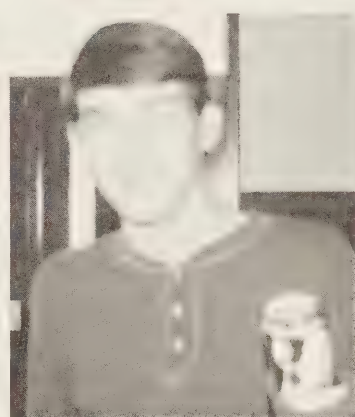

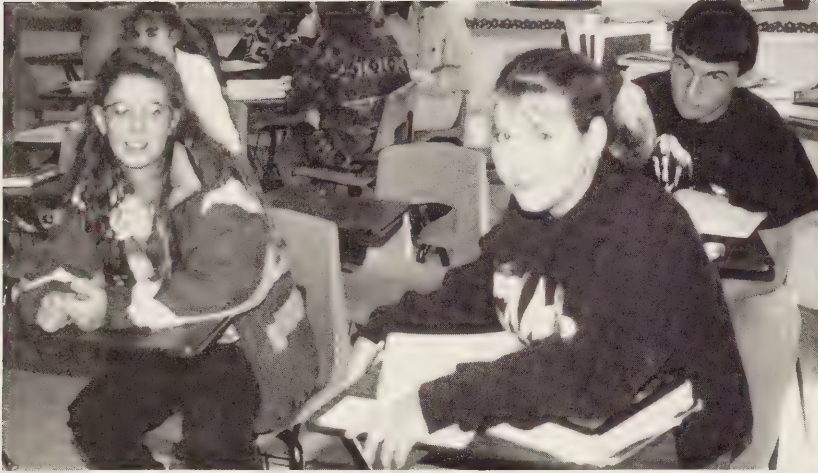

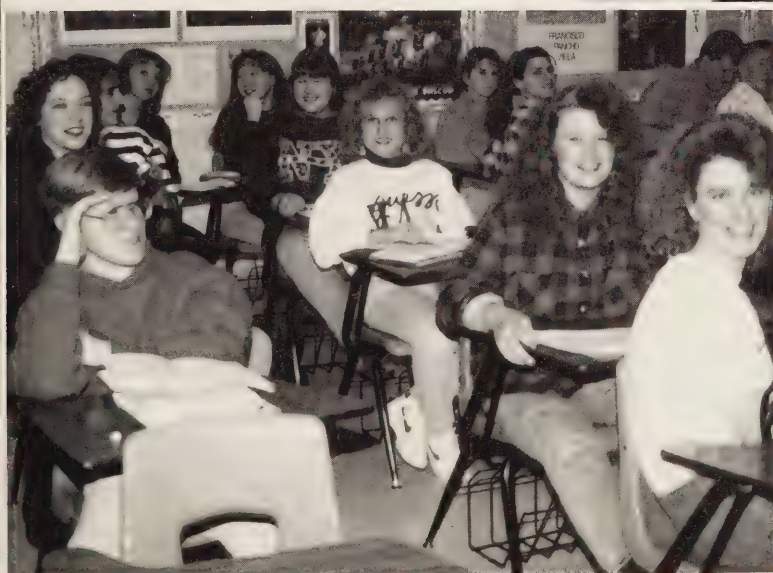

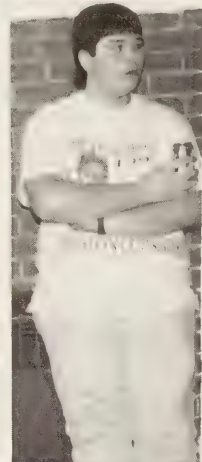

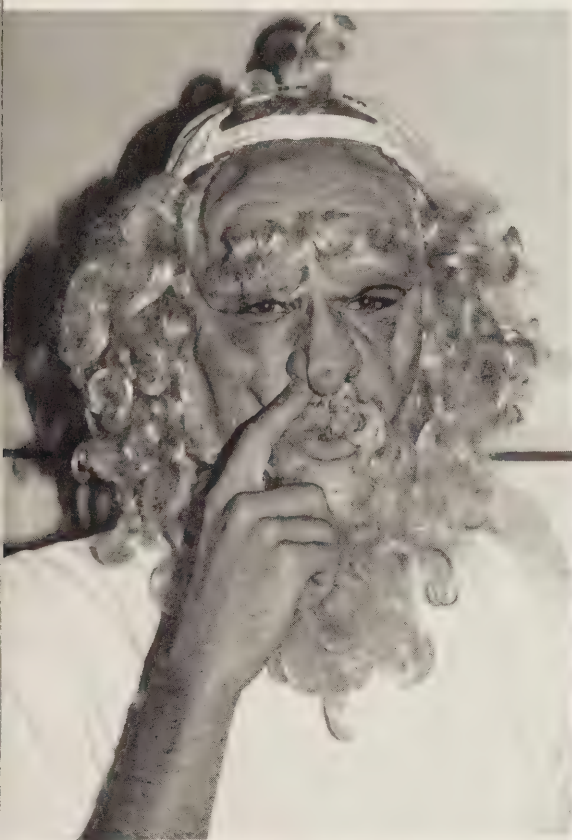

ONE LAST LOOK AT THE

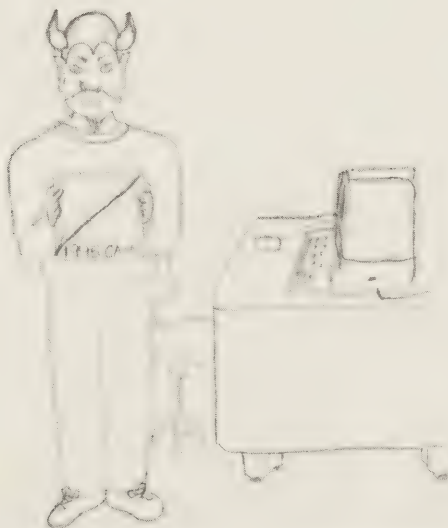

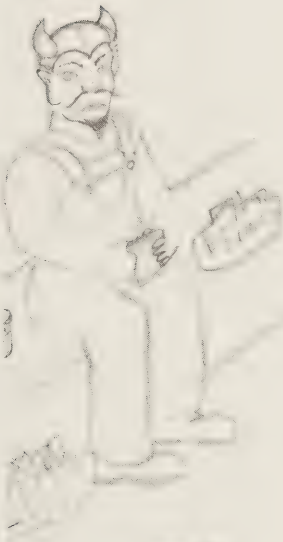

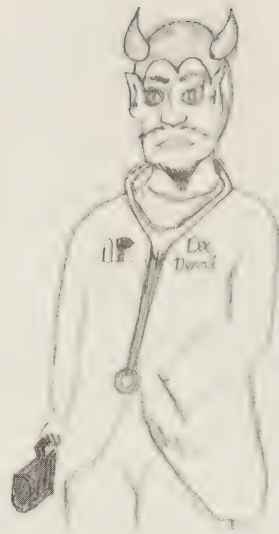

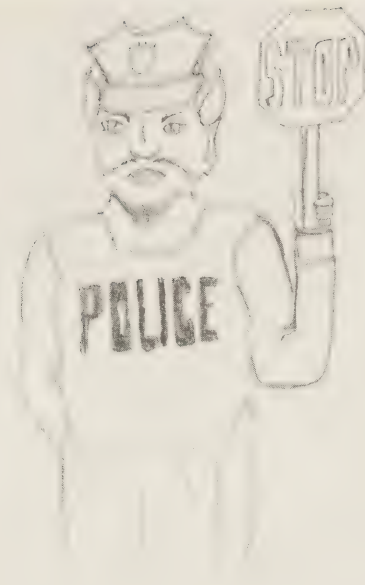

MAKING OF THE YEAR 1994-1995

Going Out In A Blaze of Glory

May you live long and prosper, May you search for and find happiness, May you always have a special place in your heart for Gate City High School, and May God hold you in the palm of his hand until we meet again.

Is that a tiny tear drop
 In the corner of your eye?
 Come on now, you're a big boy
 and big boys don't cry.
 Tell mommy what's your problem,
 Let me fix it if I can.
 I Love You, little darling,
 you're "MOMMY'S LITTLE MAN!"
 I can fix your broken toys;
 I'll patch your wounded knee,
 I'll rush you to the doctor,
 Should I ever hear you sneeze.
 I'll kiss away your hurts
 And smooth away your fears;
 Somehow we'll get through
 Those adolescent years.
 But little boys get bigger,
 Try and stop them if you can.
 Today mommy's precious baby,
 And tomorrow he's a man.
 Is that a tiny tear drop
 In the corner of my eye?
 Well, I'll be darned, it surely is,
 But mommies always cry.
 Love Forever,
 MOM

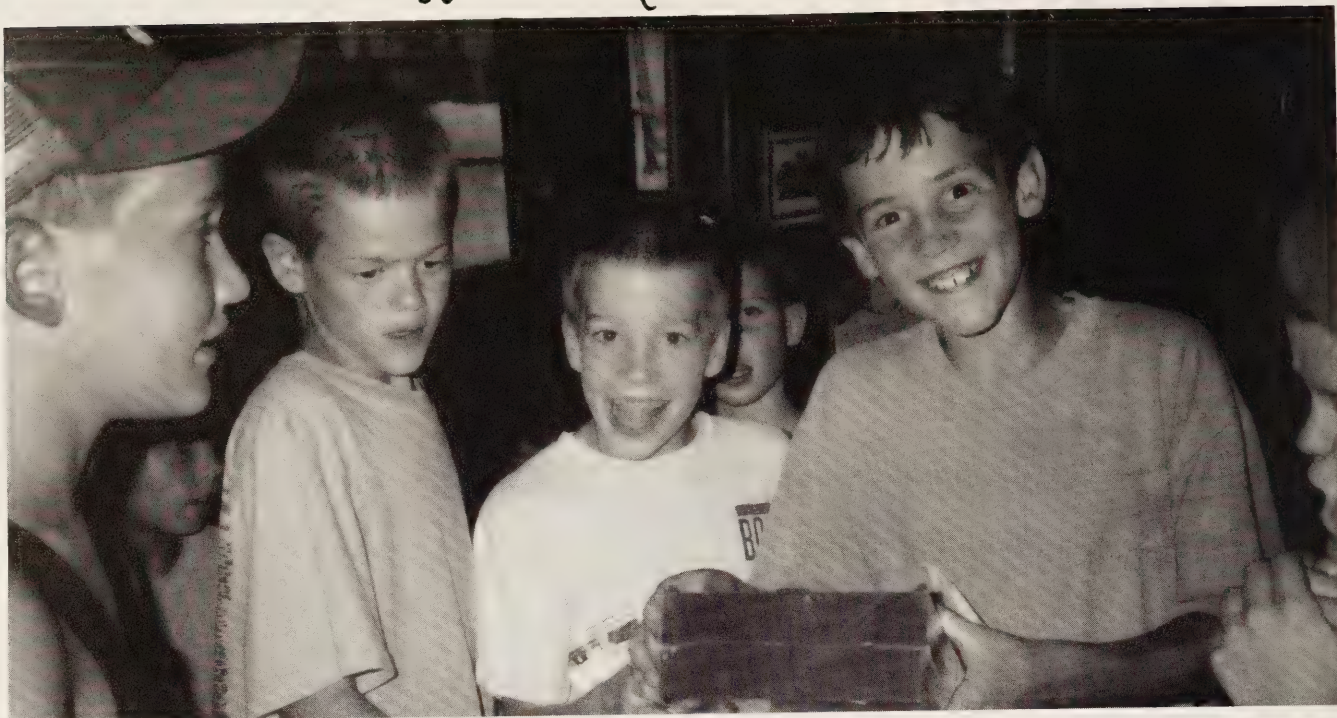

We had a little boy whose blood ran blue. He went to Gate City no matter what we tried to do.
 Sports was his fame, while basketball was his game. We just wish his grades to be the same.

Love,
 Mom, Dad
 Penny & Mandy
 We are proud of you!

And You Thought Keeping Them In Diapers Was Expensive?

Unfortunately, the cost of higher education gets higher and higher every year. Fortunately, we believe that your child should have the chance to reach his or her full potential. That's why this year our banks will provide millions of dollars for college loans.

So don't let the high cost of higher education get you down. Talk with us. After all, we didn't get to be one of the nation's largest banking companies without investing in the future.
